Work Experience

Frontend Developer   Sep 2021 - Sep 2022
Vectorly   US, remote

Vectorly is a US startup, which works as a talent management system build for Engineering managers and their developers.

I worked as Frontend Developer in a small team of 3 engineers. I was in charge of Design System, maintained Storybook and closely collaborated with Product designers. Initially focused on UI development, I later moved to business logic.

- Implemented project permissions module
- Implemented team management module
- Refactored project from global styles to design system with new adaptive layout components.
- Participated in business logic development: data fetching and transformation with RxJs, working with REST API, working with roaming and role-based access system
- Participated in responsive UI development in close collaboration with Product designers with strong focus on accessibility, performance and Lighthouse reports. We used custom components, PrimeNg and SCSS.
- Mentored junior colleagues

Frontend Developer   Feb 2021 - Jun 2021
Freelance   Remote

I worked with small business and e-commerce stores, using React, TypeScript, NextJs, Redux Toolkit, SCSS Modules and Tailwind CSS.

- Added TypeScript and refactored React project from class components to function components.
- Moved e-commerce store from client-side React app to server-side NextJs app, significantly increasing loading speed and Time-to-interactive.
- Helped designers to create uniform and easy to implement design system

Research Assistant, Visiting Lecturer   Sep 2018 — Feb 2020
International Laboratory for Applied Network Research   Slovenia, Russia

I worked at the International Laboratory for Applied Network Research at HSE University in Moscow. There, I worked as data analyst, published four scientific articles and participated in international conferences, academic workshops, and schools. I also taught academic writing to master students.
